Dear Friends,

We welcome Rev Tom Bozeman this week visiting us once again. He will give the sermon on Sunday at the fellowship and wants to visit with as many of us as possible this week while he's here. If you did not receive an email regarding scheduling a time to see him, please let me know.

This week's forum: Jon Beetem, retired judge. "Plea Bargaining"

Next week's forum: Michelle Brooks, "The History of the Emancipation Proclamation".

This week's sermon: Will be presented by Rev Tom Bozeman

Children attending in-person are welcome to join RE Instructor Dr Samantha Porter for a lesson during the service hour. This month's theme: Awakening

Lunch After Services

Please join us for lunch after the service. This weeks lunch will be at Prison Brews.

This Week's Joys and Concerns:

Brian Wekamp was in St Mary's Hospital this week. He is home now, but welcomes positive thoughts for recovery.

If you have a joy or concern that you would like to have read during a service or shared in our weekly email, please submit it by noon on the Friday before through our website: <http://uufjc.org/joys--concerns.html>

We will also have paper forms available Sunday morning for submissions. Submissions made after noon on Friday may not be read or shared until the following week.

Book Club

The July Intergenerational Classical Book Study is Faust: A Tragedy, Parts One and Two, by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. The group will meet in the Forum Room on July 13 at 2pm; join us for an invigorating hour.

Joan Kurtzeborn is our Social Action Committee leader and she is always looking for anyone that would like to get involved to join our Social Action Team. If you are interested, please see Joan or one of our other board members. Our next group involvement will be at the State Capitol Rotunda on Thursday, July 17, from 12-1:30 pm for the “Good Trouble Lives On” rally.

Caring Committee

Contact Mary Jo LaCorte at: uufjc1@gmail.com for assistance.
