Dear Friends,

I will not be at the Fellowship on Sunday because I'm going to Arrow Rock to see A Christmas Carol. One of my best friend's son is in the production. My friend lives in Dallas, TX, and I rarely get to see her so it's in part a Christmas present to myself.

This week's forum: Cody Cox, Coyote Hill Foster Care Ministries.

Next week's forum: Rudi Keller, The Missouri Independent and "States Newsroom."

This week's Sermon- See No Stranger by Rev David Schwartz - September 11, 2022

Rev Schwartz is the lead minister at the Unitarian Universal church of Boulder, Colorado. David grew up outside Boston. He did his BA at Tufts and his MDiv at Harvard before spending seven years in St. Paul and Minneapolis. Before full-time ministry, Rev. David spent a decade in corporate HR with Target as a senior consultant in learning and development.

UU Moment - It Was Always about the Kindness by Rev Douglas Taylor
A Unitarian Universalist sermon about kindness and evolution.

Rev Taylor is a minister at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Binghamton, NY. Theologically, he identifies as a Theist. A little more nuanced, he would say he is a Buddho-Humanist, Christo-Pagan with occasional bouts of mysticism.
