

UUFJC Weekly News - June 13, 2026

Dear Friends, This past weekend found several of us attending Pridefest. It was the first one to be held in Jefferson City and very well attended. Thank you to Joan Kurtzeborn for representing our fellowship at the UUFJC table.

This week's forum: - Nathan Elwood, Legislative Library Admin, "Walthall M Moore, Missouri's first Black legislator".

Next week's forum: Taylor Wolz: "Salute to America/USA-250". Jefferson City's 4th of July.

Sermon - "The Values That Hold Us Here: New Member Sunday"

Children attending in-person are welcome to join RE Instructor Dr Samantha Porter for a lesson during the service hour. June's Theme: Flourishing Together

Lunch After Services- Please join us for lunch after the service this week at Oscar's.

This Week's Joys & Concerns:

If you have a joy or concern that you would like to have read during a service or shared in our weekly email, please submit it by noon on the Friday before through our website: <http://uufjc.org/joys--concerns.html>

Carol Bontempo is at Boone Hospital in Columbia. We send her well wishes for a complete recovery. Please stop by and see her if you are able.

We will also have paper forms available Sunday morning for submissions. Submissions made after noon on Friday may not be read or shared until the following week.

Our part-time minister, Rev Tom Bozeman, will be with us again from Sunday, July 26 - Sunday, August 2. He will have a workshop on Saturday, August 1. All are welcome to attend this workshop. He will also be available for 1 on 1 discussion by appointment.

“Love is like a seed, if nourished and taken good care, it grows and flourishes but if neglected and not taken good care it stagnates and eventually dies.”

SOCIAL JUSTICE NEWS

The next Good Trouble Lives on Rally will be at the Missouri State Capital, Saturday, July 18. The rally will begin with speaker Jess Piper at 10 am. This will be followed by a march through town, passed the governor's mansion and back to the Capital.

I had a table at the recent JC Pride Festival. The estimated attendance was 600! Young people seemed happy to be recognized. I plan to research a good way to welcome this group to our congregation through Side with Love.

With Peace,

Joan
